

NAME

Email | Phone Number

EDUCATION

University of California, Santa Cruz

June 2019

Bachelor of Arts in Legal Studies

Bachelor of Arts in Politics

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Issues in Constitutional Law

UCSC Legal Studies/Politics Department, Santa Cruz, CA

January - March 2018

- Analyzed emerging constitutional issues in regards to the 1st Amendment, including free expression, incitement to violence, hate speech, and freedom of the press

Research Assistant

UCSC Politics Department, Santa Cruz, CA

September -December 2017

- Conducted undergraduate political research regarding the history of anti-lynching and filibusters in the United States Senate
- Analyzed and investigated hearings and proceedings of the United States Senate and House of Representatives
- Provided relevant research information to be utilized in a forthcoming academic book

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Legal Studies Writing Intern

UCSC Legal Studies Program, Santa Cruz, CA

February 2018 to Present

- Develop the creation of a writing program within the Legal Studies Department at UCSC
- Perform logistical and administrative operations: the planning of tutoring sessions, the development of training materials, and the selection of additional Legal Studies writing tutors
- Train new Legal Studies tutors in determining the optimum area of need of a student to maximize the benefit of each tutoring session

Lead Tutor

Legal Studies Writing Tutor Program, UCSC Legal Studies Program, Santa Cruz, CA January 2018 to Present

- Tutor undergraduate students enrolled in Legal Studies courses to develop overall writing and study skills necessary to succeed at the university level
- Adjust teaching techniques to cater to each individual student to enhance their understanding

CAMPUS INVOLVMENT

UCSC Mock Trial

UCSC College Ten Senate

UCSC Co-Curricular Programs Office